ROBERT W. WOODRUFF LIBRARY
 Constructed in 1982, the Robert W. Woodruff Library is named in honor of Robert Winship Woodruff, former CEO of the Coca Cola Company. The library was designed to serve the instructional, informational, and research needs for member institutions of the Atlanta University Center Consortium, the world's largest and oldest consortium of Historically Black Colleges and Universities. The institutions that make up the Atlanta University Center Consortium are Clark Atlanta University, the Interdenominational Theological Center, Morehouse College, Morehouse School of Medicine and Spelman College.

MEMORIALS/ MAIN CAMPUS AREAS

Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel

The Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel serves as the "living room" of historic Morehouse College. The Chapel seeks to develop and promote clergy, laity and youth awakening through reconciliation, non-violence, science, spirituality and the building of global "communities of hope." The Chapel is the world's most prominent religious memorial to alumnus Martin Luther King Jr. '48.

Hall of Honor

The International Hall of Honor in the Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel honors persons of the 20th and 21st centuries who have made significant contributions to civil and human rights nonviolent movements internationally.

BUILDINGS

The Leadership Center building

This 70,000-square-foot facility, which opened in August 2005, houses the College's Division of Business Administration and Economics, Emma and Joe Adams Public Service Institute, Andrew Young Center for International Affairs and The Leadership Center. The building features state-of-the-art computer and information technology and promotes collaboration and interaction among students, faculty, administration and staff.

Kilgore Campus Center

Named in honor of civil rights activist and Morehouse alum the Rev. Thomas Kilgore Jr. '35, the center is a multipurpose building that houses the President's Dining Room, a snack bar, a game room, a student lounge, guest quarters and administrative offices.

Benjamin Elijah Mays National Memorial

Dr. Benjamin Elijah Mays was laid to rest on the Morehouse campus in 1984. A memorial in honor of Mays lies on the College's Century Campus, site of Morehouse's Commencement exercises.

Mays, considered the architect of Morehouse's reputation for academic excellence, served as president of Morehouse from 1940 to 1967.

The Howard Thurman National Obelisk

The Howard Thurman National Obelisk honors a man known as a forerunner in the interdenominational religious movement. Thurman, a 1923 graduate of Morehouse, served as a Commencement exercises.

Graves Hall

Honoring Samuel T. Graves, the second president of Morehouse College, Graves Hall is the oldest building on campus. This was the original site of the entire school when it moved to Atlanta from Augusta.

Douglass Hall

Named in honor of well known abolitionist Frederick Douglass, the building holds the College's archives. The hall also serves as a study hall and academic support center. The offices of the class deans and Health Professions are located in this building.

Davidson House

Davidson House serves as the executive center of Morehouse College. Named for alumnus Robert C. Davidson Jr. '67, the house serves as a venue for meetings, conferences and fund-raising activities, as well as the residence of the president of the College. (Not open for tours.)

Martin Luther King Jr. Statue

The King Statue on the plaza of the King Chapel is the only statue in the state of Georgia honoring Martin Luther King Jr. It was dedicated May 1984 and has become the photo opportunity hotspot for thousands of visitors to the campus.

Century Campus

Century Campus serves as the center of Morehouse College's campus. The College's Spring Commencement exercises are held here.

Gloster Hall

Honoring former Morehouse President Dr. Hugh M. Gloster '31, the building houses the main administrative offices of the College, including the offices of the President and his cabinet. The building is also home to the offices of Admissions, Financial Aid, Records and Registration and Human Resources. Gloster's memorial is outside the building.

Danforth Chapel

Named in honor of William H. Danforth, the founder of the Ralston Purina company, the chapel serves as a meditative space for Morehouse students. The 75-seat chapel also has served as the location of numerous weddings of Morehouse and AUC alumni.

EATERIES

Chivers-Lane Dining Hall

The Chivers-Lane Dining Hall offers an array of options in an all-you-care-to-eat format for one low price. Included are a grill, salad bar, deli, pizza station and more. The Hall is open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday, and for brunch and dinner on Saturday and Sunday.

Jazzman's

The campus coffee shop provides unique coffee blends and roasts, an array of smoothies, a variety of fresh gourmet baked goods and specialty sandwiches and salads. Jazzman's is open from 7 a.m. to midnight Monday through Friday, and from 11 a.m. to midnight on Saturday and Sunday.

Snack Bar

The Snack Bar features a wide array of options, from deli sandwiches to juicy burgers. Located in the Kilgore Campus Center, the Snack Bar is open from 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

SPORTS VENUES

Forbes Arena

Named in honor of Morehouse coach and administrator Franklin Lafayette Forbes in 1999, Forbes Arena is a 6,000-seat facility that was built as part of the $51 million-plus investment in the Atlanta University Center by the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games (ACOG). The arena has four locker rooms, a first-aid station, a training room, a weight room and four concessions stands.

Archer Hall

Named after the fifth president of Morehouse College, Samuel Howard Archer, Archer Hall holds the College's recreational facilities, including a gymnasium, swimming pool and game room. The gymnasium seats 1,000 people and was used by the College's basketball team before Forbes Arena was built.

B.T. Harvey Stadium/Edwin Moses Track

Morehouse's stadium was named in honor of Burwell Towns Harvey, the most successful athletics coach in Morehouse history. Harvey arrived at Morehouse in 1916 to teach physics and chemistry. He eventually coached Maroon Tiger teams in football, basketball and baseball for 13 years. The track was named in honor of Morehouse alum and Olympic track star Edwin Moses '78.
